CHAMPAGNE

MOËT & CHANDON

[REGION – Épernay, France]

The rich flavour and colour of champagne results from combining three different types of grapes : Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay. Meticulous attention to every facet of the winemaking process and the unparalleled richness of their vineyards is the key to Moët & Chandon' legendary style and access to the finest and most wide-ranging selection of fruit in the region enables Moët & Chandon to create champagnes of quality, precision and uniqueness.

MOËT & CHANDON BRUT IMPÉRIAL

The House's iconic champagne embodies Moët & Chandon's unique style, a style distinguished by its bright fruitiness, its seductive palate and its elegant maturity. The delicious sumptuousness of white-fleshed fruits, the alluring caress of fine bubbles and the soft vivacity of citrus fruit and nuances of gooseberry

SPARKLING WINE

METHODE CAP CLASSIQUE

In South Africa a sparkling wine made the French way is called an MCC or Methode Cap Classique. The most common wines used for this method are Sauvignon Blanc, Chenin Blanc, and Chardonnay. For a darker more original bubbly, Pinot Noir can be given an MCC treatment. The name Methode Cap Classique has been given to South African wines since the 1900s.

GRAHAM BECK BRUT

[REGION – Robertson] 345

Approachable aperitif style with lemon and quince tang. Fine mousse gives freshness and finesse to this bubbly.

GRAHAM BECK BRUT ROSÉ

[REGION – Robertson] 345

An aroma of raspberries and cherries comes through on the nose, followed by subtle red berry flavours. Brisk on the palate showing hints of oyster shell and fresh lavender. An all season drinking sparkling wine.

GRAHAM BECK BLISS DEMI SEC

[REGION – Robertson] 345

Light yeasty aromas with hints of butterscotch, honey and praline, this amazing bubbly will stimulate your sweeter senses.

WHITE WINES

SAUVIGNON BLANC

ALVI'S DRIFT

[REGION – Worcester]

175

The wine is light and fruity with aromas of cut grass, granadilla and asparagus.

FAT BASTARD

[REGION – Robertson]

240

This beautifully well balanced wine offers good texture with layers of tropical fruit.

ATARAXIA

[REGION – Hemel-en-Aarde]

290

There is a "Usain Bolt" like athleticism and linearity to this crisp mineral driven wine; where the texture is more important than the fruit. A tangy and vibrant wine that is a perfect companion to food.

CHENIN BLANC

PORCUPINE RIDGE

[REGION – Stellenbosch]

160

This is a no fuss, easy drinking wine with flavours of green apples and gooseberries.

CHARDONNAY

PORCUPINE RIDGE [unwooded]

[REGION – Robertson]

160

Pungent aromas of citrus fruit like oranges and grape fruit which follow through on the palate giving a well rounded wine.

GRAHAMBECK GORGEOUS

Chardonnay, Pinot Noir

[REGION – Robertson]

210

This wine features spicy mineral scented aromas of orange blossom, jasmine and pear followed by mouth filling layers of raspberry cream, grapefruit, lime and melon flavours.

WHITEWINES

INTERESTING VARIETALS

PINOT GRIGIO

This is an Italian grape varietal also known in France as Pinot Gris. The grape is often harvested early to retain the refreshing acidity and minimize some overt-fruitiness of the variety creating a natural flavour profile.

ANTHONIJ RUPERT PINOT GRIGIO

[REGION – Franschhoek]

Lemon zest, pear and melon whiffs are found on the nose. Clean grapefruit and lemon flavours which echo the nose's promise. Deliciously refreshing and unfussy. 170

RED WINES
